PROTECTION AGAINST LIABILITY CLAIMS

GROUP RATES

HOW TO APPLY

Use the calculations below to determine your annual premium.

In today's litigious society, all of us are concerned about liability claims for bodily injury, personal injury, or property damage to others, which may be brought against us for negligence. Many times these claims have no merit, but the defense costs alone can be substantial. If they are determined to have merit, judgements today can be devastating and your personal as well as business assets can be seized.

To help you get the protection you need, The Pet Professional Guild offers the Liability Protection Policy. This policy was designed to take the worry and the hassle out of finding reliable coverage. Best of all, buying coverage endorsed by TPPG means affordable group rates.
